LOVE SPECIAL

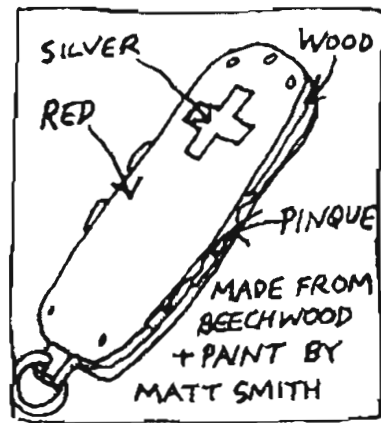

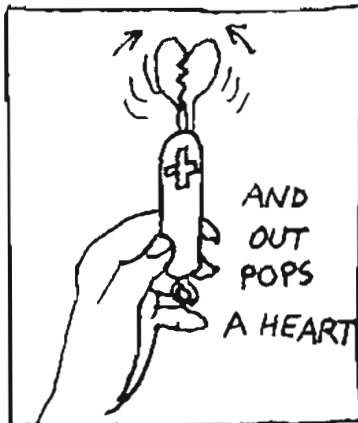

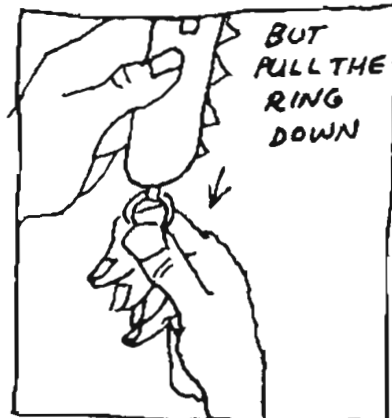

If you are one of those depressive sorts that believe retailers use Valentine's Day as a crude marketing ploy then don't let that stop you buying a piece from this CMT NEWS LOVE SPECIAL issue. You can use these items satisfactorily at ANY TIME of the year. It's true honey.

LOVE - SWISS ARMY STYLE

Firstly, we'd like to tempt you with the 14 Balls Toy Co. offering. This is about 3" high and supposed to be a limited edition. Can't tell you how many because Matthew is working so hard (fat chance - ed) that he cannot be reached on the telephone, but at £19.50, what does it matter?

HEART-O-MATIC

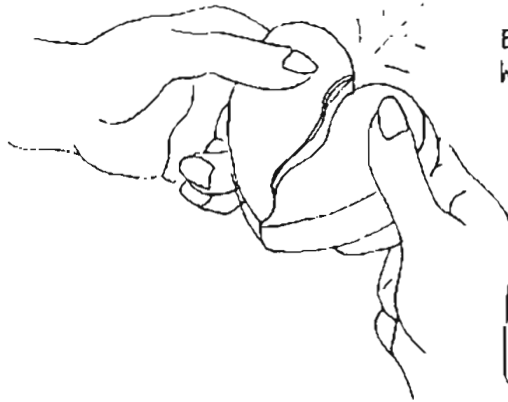

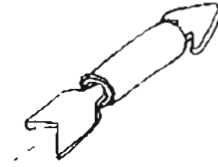

Cabaret Mechanical Theatre is nearly 12 years old and Willy Jackson was there at the start. He escaped for awhile but the long arm of CMT has finally caught up with him. We are hoping to shift his Heart-o-matic (8x7x2cm) by the small-box full by selling to you at £24.50. Buy two, get another for £24.50. 'Can I help anybody?'

HEART IN A SPIN

Blimey! Talk about spoilt for choice. A third piece with that essential organ at it's heart... er... centre. Wind this up and give it to someone you love. When they remove the arrow the heart will spin, allowing persistence of vision (see glossary) to reveal an otherwise unintelligible, or normally hidden, message (Be My Baby). 16x6x4cm and only £23.00.

REMEMBER - LOVE IS IMPORTANT
