

Well. Sorry the fourth edition looks so similar in layout to the third. We thought we ought to get this one out in time to allow you to make Xmas orders, so it was produced in a hurry. Anddddd as you know, editing existing pages is much quicker than creating afresh. Next time I'll endeavour to make my life more difficult. Maybe.

Coincidence

See. Regular and sharp-eyed readers will notice last months sub-heading. This time the coincidence is that the Paul Spooner / Matt Smith (14 Balls) production is the world famous 'Camel Simulator'. Paul first made these in 1981. We think. The picture will be pasted-in minutes before going to the copy shop, so I'm not going to risk describing it, but it should be just like a real Camel Simulator with Anubis as cowboy undertaker etc. CMT visitors will remember it. The price should be £55-50. Not a limited edition.

Next Markey

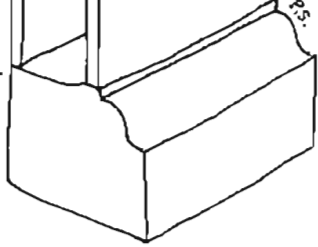

We have a few Peter Markey originals - various wave machines, animals and some new walking feet. Prices range from £48 to £150. We also have three or four new Michael Howard pieces. Phone for more details.

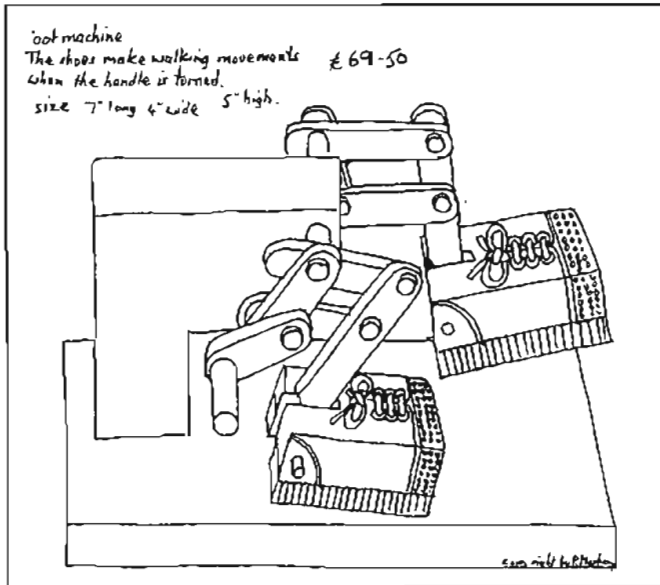

Select

The following is a selection of the Stolpe team stock all of which are designed by Peter Markey.

Jungle with hunter, giraffe, croc and toucan, (see over), £116-50.

Approx. 7 1/2" tall

Kicking Ladies are a good sexist Markey featuring two high kicking girls with bouncing chests. £56-00.

Some Others

Here are brief details of a selection of our current stock.

Sheep Shearers - After eleven turns or so the sheep chops off the sheep shearers head. A favourite with vegetarians. Ron Fuller design £107-50.

Lion Tamers - Old favourites. Lion Tamer continues to avoid the snapping jaws. Ron Fuller design £57-50.

Press-up Anubis - Have an Egyptian God keep fit on your behalf. Paul Spooner design. £50-60.

Gun Dog - Dog shoots dog. Stolpe design £28-75. (See over)

Decor

Why not hang a flying Anubis (or ten) from your ceiling or tree this year. Yes! out with angels, cherubs ballons and other traditional religious decoration. 10,000 Egyptians can't be wrong. Available in regular size with black heads only. Order early.

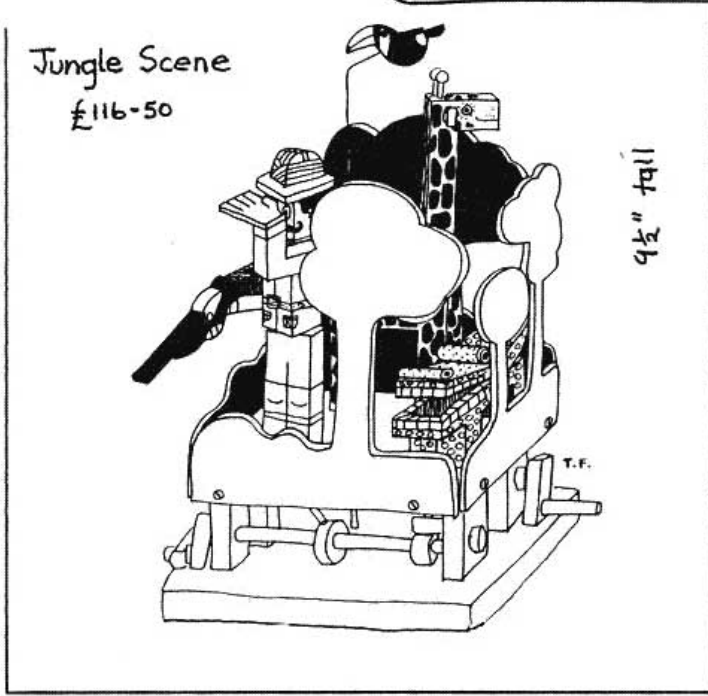

Books

Paul Spooner's book of seven mechanical cardboard cutouts has been reprinted. Cost £9-99 (UK P&P £1-50). His new book is 'Red Roger'. A charming tale of a pirate who was beast of the seas. Wonderful illustrations and free cardboard flying parrot to construct. £4-95

XMAS RUSH!

Tim Hunkin's 'Rudiments of Wisdom' cartoon strips (as was in the Observer colour supplement) have been compa 400+ page volume called 'Almost everything there is to know'. Throw away any other encyclopaedias. only £4-95. We may get some of Tim's original coloured drawings of the 'Rudiments' to sell. Phone if interested, but I'll want at least one for myself.

date for the U.S. is Dec. 7th. Prices include VAT but not Post and Packing. The only currency we eat is Sterling. If you cannot come in then phone or write to find out how much money we need. We accept Visa, Access/Mastercard, Amex, Diners and JCB. Most orders sent overseas are exempt from VAT (15%). The phone number is 01 379 - 7961. Best speak to Tina. We are open from 10 to 7 every day. Closed on Dec. 25-27 (& maybe 28th) & 1, 2 Jan.

Perfs

Are you watching C4 on Tuesdays at 6.30pm? The Secret Life of Machines (UK only).

The play of the book is back. The Zoo of Tranquillity runs again at the Lyric Theatre, Hammersmith. Big Spooner machines on stage with Sylvester McCoy. Forget Cinderella on ice with fire and Postman Pat. This year go to the Zoo. Guaranteed no tinsel. (See enclosed leaflet - Ed).

Sale

Please get in touch if you want more information on anything mentioned here or if you want to know what else we have for sale.

Ordering Information

Easiest is to phone with a credit card to hand, especially if you want things in time for Xmas - last posting

Address

The address is

Cabaret Mechanical Theatre

33/34 THE MARKET
COVENT GARDEN
LONDON WC2E 8RE

