BOOKS

Cabaret Mechanical Movement (£9-99) is packed with diagrams, information and useful tips on making your own automata. If you still don't know what a cam is, then this book is for you. 124 A5 pages with over 200 black and white illustrations.

Paper Automata (£4-95) by Rob Ives. Four designs - the Hopping Sheep, the Pecking Hen, the Flying Fish and the Motley Man. Just add scissors and glue.

Red Roger - Beast of the Seas (£4-95) by Paul Spooner. Beautifully illustrated children's story with card cut-out parrot to make.

Spoooner's Moving Animals (U.S. Import - £19-95) by Paul Spooner. A short history of Automata, some of Paul's philosophy and seven funny, mechanical cardboard cut-outs. Including the Anteater, Wedding cake, Four-man Horse of the Apocalypse.

The Museum of the Mind (£9-95) by Paul Spooner. More cardboard constructional fun. Make up your own mind with 192 pieces of paper. 14 inch tall head with 4 changeable air-driven fillings, including the migraine headache.

VIDEOS

Three VHS tapes which bring the wonderful world of CMT alive on your television. Add £2 for NTSC format (USA / Japan).

How to Make Automata (£12-99 42 mins) Learn with Keith Newstead the mechanisms and some of the methods involved in making automata.

Cabaret Mechanical Video (£14-99 43 mins) A video catalogue of the CMT collection. Includes interviews with the artists in their workshops, some of their other machines and mechanical explanations.

Made in Stithians (£9-99 34 mins) An amusing and inspiring portrait of Paul Spooner at work as he attempts to make a new machine in one day.
